

MODULAR ENTERTAINMENT SYSTEM

ABSTRACT

A modular entertainment system that is mounted overhead on the roof inside an automobile comprising three main interchangeable components including a DVD player, a multi-function dome light, and a flip-down display. All three components are interchangeable to allow full customization of the modular entertainment system.